

FAITH IN YOURSELF

Supporting LGBT+ young people of faith

Venue

Date

Following on from previous vibrant and colourful training sessions, we are back with a session to coincide with Interfaith week. We will explore how best to support LGBT young people in faith communities and how to start addressing this topic.

This training is specifically aimed at:

- ★ BAME youth and community workers
- ★ Faith leaders and community influencers
- ★ People who work with young people of faith and BAME young people

What to expect:

- ★ Explore and plan for how best to support young people
- ★ Space to reflect on your roles in BAME, faith and youth communities
- ★ FREE Faith In Yourself resource
- ★ Refresh and top up LGBT knowledge
- ★ Lively discussions

To RSVP email

chloe.cousins@theproudtrust.org or call 07519 814 905
Questions and comments welcome

The Proud Trust BAME LGBT Allies Network aims to help support BAME youth and community workers to best support those in their communities with the goal that BAME LGBT young people will feel safe and able to bring their whole selves to youth, faith and community spaces everywhere.

